Work on the Pension Building-Gen. M. C. Meigs, supervising architect and engineer of the new pension building, in his report to the Secretary of the Interior for the report to the secretary of the Interior for the month of October, says that the interior and ceilings of the two lower galleries have been plastered in three conta-hard finish. The north wall of the middle hail—151 feet high—has been plastered, and the space on both sides of the wall above the great western colomade arches has been plastered. The east side of the east wall of the middle hall has been plastered. The iron beams to support the floor arches of the fourth story are being placed in position, and the work of extending the iron salconies is going on. The tiling of the floor of the hall will be laid as soon as the accumulations are removed.

We drew the line very closely on kinds in selecting our Men's Underwear for Fall and Winter, confining the stock to goods of a high standard as regards quality, style, finish, and workmanship-products of reliable manufacturers only.

Men's Heavy - weight Ball-riggan Shirts and Drawers, $1.70 to $2.20 per garment, according to size. Usually sold at $5 per suit. Men's Gray Scotch Wool Shirts and Drawers, only $1.05 each; $3.20 per suit. White Underwear, 50, 6216, 75, $75/20, $1, and up.

SCARLET MEDICATED UNDER

WEAR. It is in these goods that the greatest care and judgment is necessary in making selections. For the past few years the market has been crowded with CHEAP scarlet underwear, poisonous chemicals being freely used to cheapen the dye stuffs, hence they not only fail to give satisfaction, but in some cases are positively injurious to health. We bought only what we knew to be made from absodyed with pure cochineal, free from any poisonous in-gredients. We warrant every garment. Our prices are $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.50, and upward per garment. Suits to match.
